

The proposed change in how the fax is used by business that you are attempting is huge and shows a lack of understanding of the convenience created by this invention. We currently are being overwhelmed by request to allow fax communication in the future with our business partners. Please scrap this onerous hassle!

Duane Lambrecht, President, Shelter Products, Inc.